WELCOME BY ACA PRESIDENT

As I write the weather forecasts for Perth (for what they are worth) look rather good for the individual events and rather bad for the Eire Cup. We know, however, that sugar pigs (whether pink or white), with their fears of looming liquefaction or deliquescence, rarely progress far in competitive croquet, so there will not be too many concerns about rain. State uniforms do add colour to the current would-be whites of national events, but if it rains we will also see some variety in the spectacle of wet-weather gear, which has a licence to brighten up our croquet tournament days. Balls (except for black) are cheerful enough against green grass or even dull brown semi-thatch, but I sometimes wonder why the makers of mallets are not less conservative. This is all in the interests of croquet as a spectator sport, of course. We hear altogether too much about players in top-level croquet, when it is clear that sport, certainly from Roman circuses on, has always existed for onlookers. Some consideration, however, must be given to players, without whom there would be no spectacle to entertain those of us who merely sit and watch. So to be serious for a moment, a very, very warm welcome to all players in the four national events covered in this programme. I'm sure you will all have at least some games of real enjoyment and achievement, and on behalf of the ACA I wish you well.

Customary, but nevertheless very genuine, thanks must go to all who have volunteered their time and energy and varied skills to make these events a success. The amount of work that has to go on beforehand is not always realised, let alone recognised, although some of it will be evident from something like this programme to actual court presentation.

Special thanks must go to those in Western Australia. I know that everything both on and off the courts will go well, because of the quality of the WA organisational input.

Enjoy. In croquet everyone can be a winner at some point.

Robyn Wallace
President
Australian Croquet Association.

WELCOME FROM CROQUETWEST

It is always a pleasure to host croquet players from around Australia at the national and interstate tournament. The croquet community of Western Australia thanks players and supporters for travelling to the 2012 Championships and we welcome you to Perth.

Old friendships and competitive rivalries will be re-kindled; and no doubt new friendships will be built through this competition period.

My appreciation goes to all those who toil behind the scenes to bring such a tournament together. Volunteers from the ACA, Croquetwest, Clubs and the Organising Committee all play their part and each is acknowledged and valued. Croquetwest also thanks the Western Australian Department of Sport and Recreation for its ongoing valuable support.

Enjoy the matches, the friendship and the sights of Perth.

Alan Sands
President
Croquetwest

3. Tournament Headquarters is the Forrest Park Croquet Club. Programs will be available at Registration.

6. Players are requested to assist in setting the hoops at the start of the day if necessary.
7. Any player is entitled to have equipment checked at any time. Law 53(b)(3) applies, should a player believe that a stroke was affected by a hoop being too tight. In double-banked games, hoops may be reset on the request of the player in play subject to approval of the double-banked player on court. 8. Dawson International balls will be used.
9. Courts will be allocated by the Venue Manager and games will be double banked as required.
10. A 5 minute warm up period will be permitted before a player's first game of the day when hoops may only be run in a controlled fashion. This is subject to the tournament schedule.

The Tournament Handicapper may amend a player's handicap before the commencement of play where there is a significant inconsistency between players of similar world ranking grade. Handicap changes take effect immediately after completion of any game in which players pass a trigger point (in accordance with the updated Handicapping Regulations published on the ACA Website on 14 February 2010).
22. An appeals committee comprising the Tournament Manager, the appropriate Tournament Referee and a member of the ACA Executive (or nominated representative) shall determine any matters that are in dispute during the course of the tournament.
