

DOCUMENT TRACKING

Document: Handbook – Amendments from AGM 24 March, 2014

Date: Friday 2 May, 2014

Current Handbook	AGM 2014
6.3.5 Motions, other than procedural and routine motions, must be moved and seconded by different States.	(There is no Clause 6.3.5)
7.3.2 Treasurer's Account, which will be used to make payments on a day-to-day basis. This account will be reimbursed only from the General Account and may never hold more than fifteen thousand dollars or such other amount as may be approved at a General Meeting. The signatories shall be the Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer, either one to sign.	7.3.2 Treasurer's Account, which will be used to make payments on a day-to-day basis. This account will be reimbursed only from the General Account and may never hold more than Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000). The signatories shall be the Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer, either one to sign.
24.1 All Officer positions shall be filled by a majority vote of the Council delegates representing State Associations, even where there is only one nomination for a vacancy. The vote shall be by secret ballot. If the sole candidate for a vacancy does not receive a majority vote, the position remains vacant until filled as a casual vacancy; 24.2 All Committee positions shall be filled by a majority vote of Council members, even where the number of nominations is equal or less than the number of vacancies. The vote shall be by secret ballot. If a nominee does not receive a majority vote, the position remains vacant until filled as a casual vacancy.	24 All officer and committee positions shall be filled by a majority vote of Council members, even where the number of nominations is equal to or less than the number of vacancies. The vote shall be by secret ballot. If a nominee does not receive a majority vote, the position remains vacant until filled as a casual vacancy.
25.1.5 All Officers shall assume office at the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting;	25.1.5 All Officers shall assume office at the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting at which they are elected;
27.2.2 consist of four members	27.2.2 consist of four members and on occasions invite the appointed Tournament Manager for an International Event hosted by the ACA or an ACA Event to become an ex-officio member during the lead-up to the particular event;

27.3 Laws Commttee 27.3.1 The Committee shall: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. be known as the Laws Committee; 2. consist of three members; 3. report to the AGM and other occasions as required; 4. in the matter of current Laws the Chairperson of the Laws Committee is to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. liaise with the International Laws Committee and ensure that any ILC rulings are effectively promulgated to the ACA Executive, State Associations, National and State Directors of Refereeing, National Director and State Directors of Coaching and appear in the Croquet Australia Magazine. 2. in the absence of ILC rulings, provide rulings and interpretations of the Laws. 27.3.2 The Committee shall recommend to the ACA Executive, after consultation with the ACA Events Manager, any variations to the Australian Regulations for Tournaments as listed in the Australian Laws Book.	(There is no By-Law 27.3)
28.5.8 be the Tournament Referee (TR) at International events held in Australia or appoint same and appoint the TR at all ACA events, it is important that local referees be given experience by appointment as TR to ACA tournaments;	28.5.8 The NRC shall make recommendations to appoint a TR for International Events held in Australia and all ACA Events to the Executive for their approval